

On January 2011 we held the 11th Minerva Workshop. The meeting took place at Room 527, Bloomfield building, Faculty of Industrial Engineering, Technion

Below is the program of the Workshop:

The Minerva Workshop Series on the Effect of Rare Events

January 14, 9:00-12:00

9:00-10:00	Distortions of probability information in human judgment: ubiquitous log odds	Laurence T. Maloney, University of New York
10:00-10:30	Break
10:30-11:00	Rare events and the experience-description gap	Ido Erev, Technion
11:00-11:30	Peak or Freq?	Amos Schurr, Hebrew University
11:30-12:00	Super-underweighting of rare events with forgone payoffs	Eldad Yechiam, Technion