

On January 2013 we held the 18th Minerva Workshop. The topic was "Loss Aversion and Decisions" and the meeting took place at Room 527, Bloomfield Building, Faculty of Industrial Engineering, Technion.

Below is the program of the Workshop:

The Minerva Workshop Series

The Minerva Workshop on Loss Aversion and Decisions

Friday, January 4, 9:30-13:15

9:30	Coffee
10:00	Loss aversion in decisions under risk: Five clarifications	Eyal Ert, Hebrew University
10:30	Loss attention, the tax max effect, and the fascinating scar effect	Eldad Yechiam, Technion
11:00	Coffee
11:15	Loss aversion under risk and under uncertainty: A critical test	Han Bleichrodt, Erasmus University
11:30	Round table discussion: The description value of loss aversion	Ido Erev, Technion (moderator),
12:15	Lunch
12:45	Goal formation attenuates over adaptation to good times	Martin Hohnisch and Sabine Pittnauer, University of Bonn
13:15	Naive play and the process of choice in guessing games	Chloe Tergiman, University of British Columbia